

P

AMERICAN

N

O

R

A

M

A

Its Pioneers
People
Promise

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

*

Young
Adult
Reading
1958

Boston Public Library

AMERICA IS PIONEERS

Buchanan. Steel trails and iron horses.

How railroading opened the West and spurred commerce.

Carmer. Cavalcade of America.

"The deeds and achievements of the men and women who made our country great."

Cather. My Antonia.

Tragedy and love shape the life of a Bohemian girl on a Nebraska farm.

Cooley. The science book of wonder drugs.

American laboratories pour forth new bullets in the war against germs and viruses.

Forbes. Paul Revere and the world he lived in.

A great man living in an age of greatness.

Guthrie. The big sky.

Young Boone Caudell's trip down the Missouri River and his surrender to the pressures of pioneering.

Kennedy. Profiles in courage.

Threatened and reviled, eight Congressmen stand by their principles.

Lavine. Steinmetz, maker of lightning.

Each time we ride an elevator or watch TV, we meet the genius of Schenectady.

Lindbergh. The Spirit of St. Louis.
A man and his monoplane conquer
the Atlantic skyways.

Morison. Christopher Columbus, mariner.
Not only a trade route but a rich
new world awaited him!

Noble. Joseph Pulitzer, front page pioneer.
An awkward immigrant lad from Hungary fights to become America's top newspaper publisher.

Sandoz. Miss Morissa, doctor of the Gold Trail.
Morissa puts medicine before love
in her rugged wilderness practice.

Thomas. The seeking.
The author and his family search out freedom from prejudice in a Vermont village.

Ulanov. A handbook of jazz.
Guide to the music, instruments,
and people who pioneered this
American contribution to music.

AMERICA IS PEOPLE

Eaton. The story of Eleanor Roosevelt.
From shy girlhood, to president's lady, to citizen of the world.

Gould. Sidney Hillman, great American.
Through the labor union this foreign-born American improved conditions for workers.

Hazeltine, comp. We grew up in America.
Celebrities from baseball to the theater confess the fun and agony of growing up.

Housepian. A houseful of love.
How an Armenian household spices the ways of the new world with the customs of the old.

La Farge. Pictorial history of the American Indian.
First hunters, first craftsmen, first Americans.

Lorant. Lincoln, a picture story of his life.
His spirit and strength preserved our national ideal.

Richardson. Great American Negroes.
The unique gifts of these men and women enriched America.

Ross. The education of Hyman Kaplan.
Hyman makes friends and laughter as he joins a classroom of new Americans.

Simonhoff. Jewish notables in America from 1776-1865.
Little known contributions by some
first citizens of our land.

Zaharias. This life I've led.
The Babe, a world champion in sport
and in spunk.

AMERICA IS PROMISE

Alilunas. Youth faces American citizenship.
And the ballot box!

Antin. Promised land.

In the freedom of her adopted land, an immigrant girl achieves success.

Brucker. America's next twenty years.

Where do we go from here?

Lock. A guide to the religions of America.

A national magazine reveals the many paths to God in America.

Mardikian. Song of America.

The owner of a fabulous restaurant tells his wondrous first experiences in this country.

Mehta. Face to face.

Lost: loneliness. Found: an education for a blind boy from India.

Neuberger. Adventures in politics.

A husband-wife team shows how government service can be honest and prideful.

Sams. White mother.

Two Negro girls receive a future with hope from the love of a white woman.

Woodbury. Let Erma do it; the full story of automation.

Electronic wizardry, machines that work, and robots.

Prepared by A Committee of Young Adults Librarians

---

These books may be obtained through the Open Shelf Department of the Central Library, the Book-mobiles, and the Branch Libraries throughout the City.

